CONNECTION

It's getting closer! After 4 years, ENCORE is coming to the stage and in a glorious way! The history of the St. Joseph Public Schools is just one of the highlights. A new feature is an on-line auction (to get to it, go to our website www.sjhscncore.org and look around, new items being added frequently).

Something new this year is that we'll not be having the usual emcee(s). We found that each was using up about 5 minutes as he/she travelled from backstage to front and center. We needed that time to be able to include all the acts we wanted to display. Announcements will be done from backstage with the exception of one.

A question for the chorus, have you all received the music you're doing in the show? IF you think you might be missing something (Showtime Opener, "Fanfare and Carol of the Drum", "We'll Meet Again" and the "SJHS Alma Mater." Incidentally the entire company will be singing the last two songs. To get to "We'll Meet Again" go on the internet and look up Vera Lynn singing it—then practice with it — it's the Finale. Everyone already better know the "Alma Mater" but the words are also on the next page of this newsletter just in case your memory is fuzzy.

Have you purchased your tickets yet? Again, go to the website and place your order there. All seats are reserved so get good ones while they last.

There is still reserved stage rehearsal time for Wednesday and some on Thursday (see the calendar in this issue). It's important that every act has some time so that we can do the lighting, audio, etc. specifically for your act. DO IT NOW!!!!!!!!!! (Write to DLB dennisbowen230@gmail.com) to schedule your act.

WE'LL MEET AGAIN

We'll meet again, don't know where, don't know when

But I know we'll meet again some sunny day.

Keep smiling through just like we always do,

'Till the blue skies clear those dark clouds far away.

So will you please say hello to the folks we all know,

Tell them we won't be long.

They'll be happy to know that as you saw us go

We were singing this song.

We'll meet again, don't know where, don't know when

But I know we'll meet again some sunny day.

SJHS ALMA MATER

Sing we "Hail to Alma Mater", praised by sons and daughters all.

Give her victory and honor, may her banner never fall.

For we love our St. Joe High School,

Raise her maize and blue on high.

Though 'twill soon be just a mem'ry,

All the dear days just gone by.

We will all remember fondly, "Alma Mater", St. Joe High.
